STATEMENT BY SELECTMEN

TO THE CITIZENS AND TAXPAYERS OF FARMINGTON, NEW HAMPSHIRE:

In submitting this report we wish to call to the attention of the citizens of Farmington various conditions which are more or less fixed and beyond the control either of yourselves or the officials who may be elected to represent you in the conduct of the business administration of the town, in so far as they relate to governmental expenses. For several years we have experienced a steadily mounting tax rate, the peak being reached in 1928 when we had a tax rate of $46.50 on a $1,000.00 of valuation; dropping back to $42.60 this past year, 1929. This reduction was due to the fact that for the year 1929 no money was raised for any purpose other than to meet what may be termed as fixed charges, or necessary overhead—this including the indebtedness growing out of the improvement of the high school building which in practical effect must be considered as a fixed charge for some years to come. In addition to the various items of necessary expense existing last year must be added the payment on the bonds issued to finance the rebuilding of our Town Hall, which in practical effect must be considered as a fixed charge for the next twenty years.

Therefore, it is practically certain that for the next several years the actual necessary and unavoidable expense of administering our town affairs must be in excess of the amount raised and expended during the past year. There is slight prospect of there being any material increase in the value of our taxable property, other than an artificial increase produced by a general increase in valuations, which would not be a method which would effect any measure of relief from the tax burden—to the contrary there is every reason to believe that the value of some of our present sources of revenue, such as wood, timber, sawed lumber and stock in trade (due to revised business practices) may suffer a material decrease.

Therefore, we wish to caution you to consider carefully any proposed measure or measures, calling for the appropriation of money for new and unusual projects before acting upon the same.

There is one other matter which we consider worthy of mention at this time—the annual Town Meeting is your meeting—the administrative policy of your town is largely molded at that time—during the rest of the year your duly elected officials are from necessity obliged to function largely upon their own responsibility, but on Town Meeting day you have the privilege and opportunity to express your opinions and ideas and we can assure you that it will be the purpose of the officials in charge of the meeting to accord you the full benefit and enjoyment of that privilege. If you have anything to say, say it; do not be afraid of the sound of your own voice.

Respectfully submitted,

HARRISON G. WALDRON,

ERROL S. HALL,

ERNEST E. LEFAVOUR,

Selectmen of Farmington.

HARRISON G. WALDRON,

ERROL S. HALL,

ERNEST E. LEFAVOUR, Selectmen of Farmington.

We, the undersigned, have examined the foregoing account and find it properly vouched and correctly cast.

ARTHUR R. JONES,

RALPH H. CARD,

Auditors.

REPORT OF STATE AUDITORS

---

Concord, February 21, 1930

Mr. Harrison G. Waldron, Chairman,
Board of Selectmen,
Farmington, New Hampshire,
Dear Sir:

I submit herewith a report of my audit of the accounts of the town of Farmington which was made at the request of your board, this audit covering the fiscal year ending January 31st, 1930.

The orders drawn by the selectmen during this period were examined, together with the accompanying invoices and payrolls, the total amount of these orders being $323,757.29. The orders were checked with the corresponding entries in the Selectmen's Receipts and Payments Book to see if the correct amounts had been entered in each case and the proper classifications made.

The Treasurer's receipts and payments were checked and it was found that the total amount of his payments was in agreement with the total amount of orders drawn by the Selectmen. The balance on hand January 31st, 1930, as shown by the Treasurer's Cash Book, was $4,092.37. This balance reconciled with the bank balance of the same date as shown by the schedule attached.

The accounts of the Tax Collector, including the tax levies of 1928 and 1929, were examined. His account for 1928 was balanced, the total amount of his payments to the Treasurer together with the amount of abatements allowed being sufficient to offset the total amount with which he was charged, viz: $91,441.78. In the 1929 account the total amount charged to the Collector minus the total amount credited to him, which included $1822.35 in abatements the allowance of which by the Selectmen was pending at the time of the audit, left a balance of $18,754.95 in uncollected taxes due on the warrant. Schedule of the audit of the Collector's accounts is attached.

The accounts of the Treasurer of the Farmington Village Precinct were audited and his bank balance of January 31, 1930, reconciled with his Cash Book balance of the same date, as per schedule herewith.

Generally speaking the accounts of the various officers were found to have been kept in good shape and in accordance with the uniform system required by the State Tax Commission. No shortages or irregularities were found to exist. The only discrepancy was a slight difference in the amount of the total tax warrants of 1928 and 1929, as ascertained by our addition of each warrant book, from the amount stated in the warrant in the front of the collector's book. We have used our corrected figures in the schedule of the audit of the Collector's accounts.

My recommendations are as follows:

1. The use of the standard form of payroll by road agents.
2. A book in which to keep a permanent record of tax abatements.
3. The use of a Collector's Cash Book by the Tax Collector.
4. A larger amount of taxes collected with a corresponding smaller list of uncollected taxes at the close of the fiscal year.

Yours very truly,

HAROLD G. FOWLER,

Municipal Accountant of the State Tax Commission.

Report of the Building Committee of the Opera House

Your committee appointed at the annual town meeting in March, 1928, submits the following report:

It was a severe blow to the citizens of Farmington when the Opera House was destroyed by fire on the night of February 10, 1928. But in view of the fact that the building had been condemned for dancing and similar entertainments, because of weaknesses having developed in the side walls and supports of the main auditorium, we may comfort ourselves by thinking that the loss cannot be compared to what it might have been had the building collapsed when occupied by a public gathering.

With the same courage and civic pride which has always prevailed in Farmington with matters relating to town affairs, it was decided to assume the responsibility of erecting a new building, and at the annual meeting of March, 1928, it was voted to raise a sum of money not to exceed $45,000 to be used with the $41,000 fire insurance received on loss of Opera House, making a total of $86,000 for the construction of same.

At the same meeting a building committee was appointed consisting of Fred I. Thayer, Frank R. Copp, George C. Roberts, Allison E. Tuttle, Fred W. Browne and the three selectmen.

Soon after their appointment, your committee convened and elected Fred I. Thayer, chairman, and Fred W. Browne, secretary.

We immediately started to procure plans and after receiving several designs, finally decided to employ Mr. J. Edward Richardson of Dover, N. H., as architect. Our selection of Mr. Richardson was made because the plan presented by him was better adapted to the needs of our town, his estimated cost nearest to the amount to be expended and because he enjoys the reputation of being one of the best construction architects in this section of new England. Our new Town Hall stands as another product of his genius.

Space in this report does not permit a detailed account of the many meetings of your committee and architect, necessary for the perfecting of plans and specifications, in our efforts to procure a building substantial in construction, beautiful in design and convenient in appointments as to auditorium, balcony, stage, offices, election hall, entrance, exits, etc.

Within two months of our appointment your architect placed the plans and specifications in the hands of contractors for sealed bids, and on May 31 the bids were opened.

On general construction, there were eleven bids, ranging from $67,263.88 to $98,582.00.

On heating, five bids, from $6,191.00 to $9,998.00.

On plumbing, five bids, from $2,102.00 to $3,948.00.

On electric wiring, three bids, from $2,621.70 to $3,010.40.

The awards for contracts were given to the lowest bidders. March & Shepard, Rochester, N. H., general construction; P. W. Bragg, Farmington, N. H., heating and plumbing; William J. Vickers, Farmington, N. H., electric wiring.

In the contract for general construction there were two alternate bids; one for $100.00 extra if we used Pennsylvania brick and the other for $206.00 extra if we used wood instead of metal for the large front columns. We decided in favor of both and this brought the amounts for contracts and architect fees as follows:

General construction	$67,569.88
Heating and plumbing	8,293.00
Electric wiring	2,621.70
Architect fees	3,750.00

Total	$82,234.58
-------	-------------

This amount left a balance of less than $4,000.00 to furnish seats for the auditorium and balcony, scenery for the stage, electric fixtures for the entire building, furniture for the offices, rest rooms, etc., tables and chairs for banquet hall, equipment for the kitchen, insurance, express, freight, costs of alterations and many other items incident to constructing a building of this type.

Your committee prepared a budget of the anticipated costs of these items and found that $8,500.00 was needed if the building was to be fully equipped.

At the special town meeting held in June, the sum was raised. This brought the amount to $94,500.00 and with $602.43, the accrued interest on the insurance, made a total of $95,102.43 for construction and equipment.

Your committee is pleased to report that after careful compilation of expenditures, we find the total cost amounts to $95,020.80.

This was accomplished only by the united efforts and friendly feelings which existed between the contractors, architect and committee, working with the same ideals, trying to keep within the appropriations and at the same time erecting for the town a building of which it is justly proud.

Perhaps it is well to mention that several people from other sections of New England have inspected our Town Hall and stated that it is equal to others they had visited which cost from $150,000 to $200,000. Such statements are a compliment to the contractors and more especially to the architect, the designer and real constructor of the building.

As a matter of record, we are including in this report an item of unusual interest: The McAndrew Brothers, who furnished the stage equipment for our new building, furnished the stage equipment for the Opera House nearly fifty years ago.

CONCLUSION

We, as your building committee, wish to state, that in assuming the duties assigned to us, fully realized the importance of the task and endeavored to act only as your agents. During the process of construction, we asked for and received many suggestions from fellow-townsmen, some of which proved to be of undisputed value and were adopted by your architect and committee. By such widespread cooperation we were able on May 10, 1929, to present to the citizens the new Town Hall for dedication.

Perhaps never in the history of Farmington has there been such a public demonstration as was witnessed on that day. The exercises were attended by most of the townspeople, many visitors and several former citizens traveled many miles to be present.

His Excellency, Governor Charles W. Tobey, attended by his council and staff, were guests of the town, and seldom has it been the privilege of any people to hear as good an address as was given by the Governor.

During the inspection of the building and since, your committee heard and have heard many words of praise as regards the building, and by hearing such words of commendation, we feel fully paid for all the time we have devoted to the cause.

Your committee as a whole do not wish for any further public acclaim, but we do feel that some suitable recognition should be given to the chairman, Mr. Fred I. Thayer, who was so devoted to his office that he gave practically all of his time for more than a year, in safeguarding the interests of the town. We recommend that at the next annual meeting, a vote of thanks be given Mr. Thayer for his services.

Attest,

FRED W. BROWNE, Secretary.
